an early morning

In the earliest hot summer days, you wake up when the sun begins to rise with the sounds of the birds. Slowly you will find your way to the bakery to score a delicious fresh croissant. With a good cup of coffee and a little morning sun you are complete.

After you've fully woken up it's time to check the laundry and let it dry through the first rays of sunlight. Ready to continue and enjoy your lovely day.

a lovely afternoon

While the pie is baking in the oven, you start with decorating the table. Because of the hot temperatures you decided to invite some friends to spend the evening in the garden.

You transform your garden into a cozy setting by using some lovely soft cushions. Set the table with a nice selection of bowls and plates. Now it's time to wait for your friends.

a cozy summer evening

After everyone arrived, it is time to get the apple pie out of the oven. A delicious scent of warm apple pie filled your kitchen.

A warm and cozy summer evening awaits. You enjoy your fresh cup of coffee and some drinks. And of course you share some of your homemade apple pie with your friends. A wonderful night to remember.
